

The standard of literacy is very low and many of the curricula can neither read nor write Arabic. Only a few are able to read and write simple English. Evening schools were started in June, 1952, by arrangement with the Director of Education who provided teachers and allowed the use of classrooms at these schools.

Admission were received and a very good meeting was held in December, 1902.

C01000

RESULTS AND SOME CASES IN DETAIL

Offences under the Indian Penal Code	Cases Reported	Fines to Court	Compensated	Under Investigation	No. of Accused Committed
Minorities	3	1	1	1	—
Other offences against the person :
(a) Attempted Murder	2	2	2	—	—
(b) Rape and unlawful carnal knowledge	—	1	—	—	—
(c) Unnatural offences	—	4	4	—	—
(d) Other offences	131	136	114	10	5
Malicious injury to property	3	2	2	—	—
Other offences against property (other than malicious injury and malicious injury to property) :
(a) Theft	273	303	264	18	25
(b) House-breaking	131	63	63	4	9
(c) Criminal & house-trespass	243	138	133	3	—
(d) Other	233	122	124	3	2
Total	1,409	723	567	39	37
Minor Acts	1,429	1,229	1,090	14	10

1952 saw an increase of 33 per cent in serious crime compared with 1951. The rise in crime coincided with an apparent very marked increase in the population. Thefts rose by 45 per cent and house breakings by 34 per cent.

368 Order Police District

625 Fire Fighting. Twelve fires were attended and dealt with by the police.

167 Immigration and Passports. There was an increase in 1952 of 30 per 486 cent in the number of immigrants as compared with 1951. Seven hundred and four new entry permits were issued and over 19,000 people were dealt with by the Immigration Officers. Over 10,770 people left the Colony.

The number of travel documents issued in 1952 was 4,290, an increase of 60 per cent over the previous year. The work increased to such an extent that it was found necessary to employ an officer on full-time duty from August, 1952.